

ROAD CLOSURES - 17th March 2022

10.30am – Road Closures

- Rose Inn Street at Canal Square
- Castle Road from Nuncio Road to the Parade but local traffic will be allowed access to Castle Gardens and on-street parking. Traffic will be allowed to exit outbound only.
- Patrick Street from Ormonde Road Junction to the Parade.
- Access to High Street will be closed.

- Irishtown, Parliament Street, Market Yard & Bateman Quay will remain open

11.30am – Road Closures

- Castlecomer New Road from McDonagh Junction Roundabout to John Street
- Dublin Road from O'Loughlin Road to John Street. Traffic will be allowed to access church, railway station and shopping centre with full closure from traffic signals to John Street.
- John Street, John's Bridge but traffic will be allowed to cross from Michael Street to Maudlin Street until 1.00pm
- Bateman Quay from south of on-street parking area to John's Bridge

- Irishtown, Parliament Street, Market Yard & Bateman Quay (part of) to remain open for local access and car parks until 1.00pm

1pm – Road Closures

- Michael Street at St. Francis Bridge junction but access will be allowed for local traffic
- Access from Michael Street to John Street i.e. through traffic from Michael Street to Maudlin street no longer permitted.
- Market Yard & Bateman Quay.

- Irishtown & Parliament Street will remain open for local access and Market Cross Car Park.

2.30pm - Reopening

- Castlecomer New Road from McDonagh Junction Roundabout to John Street and parking restrictions removed.
- Dublin Road from O'Loughlin Road to John Street.

3pm - Reopening

- John Street, John's Bridge, Bateman Quay, Market Yard & Michael Street and parking restrictions removed.

4pm - Reopening

- Castle Road from Nuncio Road to the Parade, Patrick Street from Ormonde Road Junction to the Parade Rose Inn Street and High Street and parking restrictions removed.

Evening

- Carnegie Library carpark to remain closed off until completion of Firestorm event (which begins at 8.30pm).